

B

I

R

D

S

Miguel Tanco

Sometimes, to charge myself, I stop doing the techniques that I usually do and I try to explore new ways with materials and shapes. I use birds or animals to find a new technique because it allows me to try different experiments but still to have a consistency with the subject. At the end, after doing a lot of them, I keep the best work and try to use it in my projects.

Miguel Tanco, June 2012

